Redwine, Pastor Jackson Hill Bapt. Church. Witnesses: John W. Grey; (Mrs.) John W. Grey." (Original marriage certificate; copy in my file) [ED Note: Mary Matthews' residence is listed above as Duncan, South Carolina, but Mary had no connection to that town. Mary attended high school in Atlanta, and her mother lived in Atlanta. The reason for the erroneous information regarding her place of residence follows: Mary and Jack had won a contest to be married in a public ceremony at the fifth annual "Atlanta Pure Food Show" in the Atlanta City Auditorium. Mary's mother was opposed to the marriage. In order to keep Mary's mother from learning about the impending marriage, Mary hid the newspaper from her mother every day until the marriage had been performed. I suppose that Mary listed her town of residence as Duncan, SC as part of her effort to keep her mother from finding out about (and putting a stop to) the upcoming marriage. The wedding at the food show was featured in the local newspaper (copy on file; from "The Atlanta Georgian"?)]
